Rural Development Corporation, a designated 501(c)3, is the parent nonprofit for the Cumberland Family Shelter and Southern Regional Food Distribution Center. Our shared vision focuses on homelessness and food sustainability.

Our commitment to providing essential support without political or religious obligations ensures that help is accessible to everyone in need, fostering a caring and inclusive community.

This unified approach not only addresses immediate challenges faced by individuals and families but also aims to create long-term solutions through empathy-driven services. By emphasizing empathy and inclusivity, we create a supportive environment where individuals feel respected and empowered as they work toward stability and self-sufficiency.

Together, our efforts make a significant impact in Cumberland County and beyond, demonstrating the power of community collaboration in tackling complex social issues.

Thank you!
